Who we are

SCB – Society of Conservation Biology: Dedicated to advancing the science and practice of conserving Earth's biological diversity, the Society for Conservation Biology is a global community of conservation professionals with thousands of members from more than 100 countries.

The SCB Oceania (SCB-O) section has been functioning with an elected independent board since 2005.

The SCB Oceania region has five sub-regions, reflecting human cultures and colonisation: Australia, Melanesia, Micronesia, New Zealand and Polynesia. The SCB Oceania has over 350 members around the region. Together this community of conservation professionals is working to advance the science and practice of conserving the Earth's biological diversity.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Please consider sponsorship packages in 3 sizes as well as event sponsorship as described on the next page. Any sponsorship includes a number of free registrations as well as a table display space in a booth at the central hall during the conference.
